OHIO NATIONAL GUARD

Inspection of the East Liverpool Company.

NUMBER OF NOTABLES PRESENT

Company E Paraded Before Captain Burns, of the Seventeenth Regulars, Colonel Geiger Present—A Light Turn-out of Members of the Home Organization.

Colonel Geiger, commander of the Eighth regiment, National Guard of Ohio, arrived in East Liverpool on Thursday evening last, accompanied by Captain J. M. Burns, Seventeenth regulars; Captain Weibrecht, commanding K company, Alliance, Eighth Ohio National Guard; Lieutenant A. L. Atkinson, of Colonel Geiger's staff, and Sergeant Major Charles S. Hoover. Capt. Weibrecht's wife accompanied the party to our city, the lady being an interested spectator of the inspection of Company E.

Captain Burns has been in the service of Uncle Sam ever since the year 1861, when he enlisted as a private in the First West Virginia infantry, serving during the war and joining the regular army in 1867, and being on duty ever since. He was born in Jefferson county, O. He is now stationed in Columbus. The captain is a personal friend of our townsman, Mr. Bowers, the plumber, and did duty with him in the same Virginia regiment during the rebellion. Colonel Geiger spoke in warm terms of praise of Captain Weibrecht's company, and states that it passed a splendid inspection. The visitors were the guests of Surgeon Hobbs and other friends in this city. The party left on No. 41 Friday morning, bound for Canton, where they inspected I, F and L companies of the Eighth. The visitors informed the NEWS REVIEW reporter that they were very much pleased with the cordial reception accorded them while here.

At 7:30, city time, Sergeant Hanley gave the command to "fall in," in order to prepare the company for the regular inspection of Captain Burns, which was set for 8 o'clock, standard time, or 9 o'clock, city time. The sergeant is evidently rusty in tactics, as he made several mistakes, executing the "about" to the left, after reporting to his captain; also failed to count fours; failed to complete the left set of fours; failed to call the men down for talking in ranks, spitting on floor, and in fact discipline was not enforced at all. Also failed to count platoons. Captain Simms called the sergeant to account for his "left about," but did not correct the other mistakes. Sergeant Moore, acting as the right guide, or second sergeant, seemed utterly at sea in some of the movements, and on "fours left or right about" did not know where to go or how to reach his position. Captain Simms explained Moore's actions by stating that the sergeant had not been present at drill for some months. After drilling the company in a few simple movements, the captain turned the command over to Lieutenant Sinclair. This officer gives his commands the falling instead of the rising inflection, as if fearful of being thought too brusque or emphatic. He made a bad break on two different occasions. His intention was to give the order, "left front into line, double time," but he gave it as follows: "On left into line, double quick time." The men seemed to understand what he desired, and executed left front into line in nice style. Sinclair will be all right with study and practice. He has the extremely bad habit of giving his commands with his back to the men. Lieutenant Supplee exhibited good judgment in giving but a few simple orders, such as he was evidently conversant with, taking no chances on anything intricate or unusual. He has worked hard for E company, and will eventually make a good commanding officer.

There were but 23 rank and file and three officers in line, the sentry at the door; Sergeant Torrence, disabled; Cook Temple, in uniform, as an enlisted man; making 29 as the sum total out for inspection. Promptly at 9 o'clock, city time, Captain Burns stepped to the front and the so-called inspection began. Captain Simms made two mistakes in this order. He failed to allow the sergeant to align the rear rank, and he failed to align the officers. He further failed to command "inspection arms," and did not do so until prompted by the inspecting officer, and when so prompted, failed to assume the proper position in giving the order. No attempt was made at any further inspection than that of opening and closing ranks, and a few of the simpler commands in the manual of arms. The company was not required to stack arms with the swivel, as the members had never been instructed therein. Loading and firing also received the go by. Knapsacks were conspicuous by their absence. No attempt was made in the setting up exercises, as the men had never had any practice in this line. In fact, the idea seemed to hold sway that Colonel Geiger and his staff knew that drill and discipline had been almost absolutely neglected in E company; that the organization was in bad shape; that the county commissioners, ably assisted by Lieutenant Walter Supplee and a small number of the loyal members of the rank and file, had determined to see that the organization was kept up and brought around in good shape, and that the gallant colonel of the Eighth, admiring this pluck and loyalty, was determined to let them off as easy as possible and give the boys every assistance in his power.

The rank and file, assembled on Thursday night last in the rink, did exceptionally good work under the circumstances, and when Lieutenant Supplee was drilling them, and they passed Captain Burns in column of fours, stepping out full and free, and holding nice distance, the inspecting officer remarked to the NEWS REVIEW reporter:

"Those lads have the material in them for good soldiers. They are doing good marching now, and will be all right when they get down to regular drill."

The armory proper was visited at a later hour. Repairs are now being made and affairs will soon be placed in nice shape for the members of the company. The first lieutenant has the books in splendid shape, and we understand that they won high praise at the hands of the visiting officers.

The NEWS REVIEW has aimed at giving our National guardsmen, of East Liverpool, simple justice in the above report, as it wishes the organization well and believes that E company can be brought up to a high standard and made to reflect credit upon East Liverpool. The organization has been in very bad shape—no one acquainted with the inside history will deny this. But the indications now are that it will flourish and prosper, and that Colonel Geiger will next year be enabled to order a full, complete and thorough inspection, and that all movements and orders will be responded to with skill and precision. Speed the day.

New Equipments.

Just how large a quantity of new equipments and how soon Company E will get them is a matter of doubt. Col. Gyger is of the same opinion as the militiamen regarding the old knapsacks—they are far superior to the new canvas style. The overcoats and caps are in good condition and it is possible that new blouses, pants and blankets will be the only things provided. The boys would like new guns, and are living in the hope that they will soon receive them. Musician Finley has been provided with a fine new bugle, and already gives promise of making a crack bugler.

Miss Collins No More.

Mr. Arthur Wynne, of the McKeesport Herald, and Miss Rose Collins, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. George Collins, of Brownsville, were married Thursday morning at the parochial residence of St. Peter's cathedral, Pittsburgh, by Rev. Father O'Neill. The groom is well known in East Liverpool, having been employed in a repertorial capacity on the NEWS REVIEW several years ago, and the bride is a charming young lady, a society leader of Brownsville. Their married life cannot but be of the most delightful nature.

Beaver College Burned.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS REVIEW.
BEAVER, Feb. 23.—The main college building was destroyed by fire this morning, the cause being an electric wire. It is thought that the fire smoldered all evening since a fashionable reception was held and a large party had nothing to do but seek enjoyment. Had there been enough water the building could have been saved.

Shenton Is Free.

Albert Shenton, who has been reposing at night in the cooler for several weeks, was released by Mayor Gilbert yesterday. His fine will be paid. There are four men in jail, and the weary ones in confinement are patiently awaiting release or the workhouse.

A Civil Suit.

Martin Brozka has entered suit in Squire Rose's court against Gus Martin for $21.05, balance claimed due on account. The case is set for trial on Tuesday morning next at 8 o'clock.

GEORGE REMEMBERED

Patriotic People Partially Observe the Holiday.

THE NATIONAL COLORS FLOAT

From Many Buildings, and Secret Orders Make Merry While Eulogizing the Father of His Country—Juniors, Daughters of Liberty, Red Men and Daughters of Pocahontas Celebrate.

Although little was said about what the patriotic people of the Ceramic City intended to do they observed Washington's birthday yesterday in a manner befitting the occasion.

Few of the workmen in the potteries were given opportunities to celebrate, but among the school children the day was a holiday. The national colors decorated the garments of hundreds of people, and no one failed to put in a good word for the father of his country.

The Junior Mechanics celebrated the day in both cities by attending meetings. A number went to Wellsburg, where the Mechanics gave an entertainment, which was attended by an immense crowd. Many were there from surrounding towns, and listened to ringing speeches which stirred up their patriotism. The evening was one of rare enjoyment, and fitly marked the day we celebrate.

Other Juniors attended the celebration given by the Daughters of Liberty, and enjoyed the appropriate exercises. This lodge was not the only one in this city to celebrate Washington's Birthday, and make the affair quite a success.

A splendid program was opened with a neat speech by Mrs. Calhoun, and Councillor Mrs. Hassey delivered a speech on the aims and objects of the order. Three beautiful tableaux, representing "Washington and the Cherry Tree," "The Washington Family," and "The Goddess of Liberty," closed the celebration.

Among the employees of the Pennsylvania company in this section those who could so arrange their work were allowed the day, but it was a holiday only to a few. The section crew, although not members of Washington's flock, were given a day's loaf, but they were the only idle ones.

When Osceola council, Daughters of Pocahontas, undertake to enjoy themselves, and make affairs pleasant for their guests, they generally succeed, and last night's celebration of Washington's Birthday was no exception. The Men's hall was well filled with members of the council and those of Iroquois tribe, Red Men, when the program announced was rendered. The room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, the pictures of Washington and his wife occupying prominent places, while that of Lincoln looked down from a loftier position, all draped neatly in an abundance of red, white and blue. Squire Jethro Manley was chairman of the occasion, and made a brief but appropriate address.

"We are assembled tonight to do honor to one of the greatest men the world ever produced, George Washington. He is revered not only by man in the western hemisphere, but wherever civilization exists the name of Washington is honored by all mankind. Washington was born Feb. 22, 1732 in Westmoreland county, Virginia. It is supposed that Washington came from good ancestry, but unfortunately we cannot trace his ancestry farther back than his great grandfather, John Washington, who settled in Virginia about 1657. But whatever his ancestry may have been, George Washington's fame does not depend on it. His fame will last as long as the English language or any other language is spoken in the civilized world, not because of the deeds of his ancestry, but because of the deeds done by himself for the good of humanity; by his truthfulness, his kindness, his stern integrity, his valor in war, and his wisdom in peace, he built his fame. Lord Brougham said: 'Until time shall be no more will the test of the progress which our race has made in wisdom and virtue be derived from the veneration paid to the immortal name of Washington.'"

A song by a trio composed of Miss Chadwick, A. Massey and Mrs. E. Barlow followed. "Lafayette" a recitation by Mrs. Brannon was well received. Miss Lyth rendered a vocal solo and other music followed. A song by A. Massey, Miss E. Harley and Miss Chadwick and more music was followed by Miss Lillie Chadwick in a recitation. Miss Eliza Harley sang again as did Misses Rose Barlow, Lillie Chadwick and Maud Barlow. The entertainment closed by Miss Fannie Bertelle in club swinging, which was loudly applauded.

Then supper was announced and a feast fit for kings greeted the braves and squaws and those who chanced to be guests in their local wigwam. Before the tables were cleared dancing was at its height and until 1 o'clock the merry-makers held sway to the music of Rowe's orchestra. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

General Lyon post, Grand Army, decorated their postroom with the red, white and blue, and from many other buildings in the city the national colors floated in the wind, those who could celebrated in no other way taking advantage of this plan of displaying their patriotism. Taken all in all East Liverpool was not behind her neighbors in observing Washington's birthday.

Wanted a Marriage.

A lively row on Second street caused no end of comment Thursday evening. Mrs. Wm. Thompson called at the office of John Rinehart, and requested Roy Rinehart, who is under bond on a paternity charge, to marry her daughter. A number of men who were present left the room at once, and the two most interested parties talked it over. In a little while Mrs. Thompson appeared on the street, and said John Rinehart had forcibly ejected her, striking and kicking her several times. This he denies with the statement that she caught him, and he put her out. A warrant was ordered for the arrest of Rinehart, but the matter was settled by the intervention of Mrs. Thompson's husband who had the matter postponed.

A Pleasant Social.

The Christian Endeavor society, of the First Presbyterian church, held a "what would you do?" social in the church Thursday night, and it proved a novel and enjoyable affair. Each person present was provided with two cards, one with the question, "what would you do?" and the other containing the balance of the sentence, for instance, "if some other fellow took your girl," or "if you fell off a log." The recipient wrote his answer on a card and the whole affair was so ridiculous as Messrs. Murphy and Moore read off the questions and answers that the crowd was kept in a roar of laughter.

Fire In a Closet.

The fire department was called yesterday morning to the residence of George Welsh in the West End, and found the blaze in a closet in the rear of the second story. The Babcocks did not possess sufficient force to extinguish the flames, and a line of hose was quickly laid. After a hole had been cut in the roof, and the water poured into the room in a flood, the stubborn blaze was soon a thing of the past, but it required almost half an hour to do the work. The department made good time on the run, Chief Adam being among the first on the scene.

Made a Horseshoe.

A motorman is responsible for the story that Bob Fitzsimmons made a horseshoe when he was in Wellsburg the other day. When Bob and his troupe were waiting for a train he learned that a crowd of sports were coming to see him, and quietly slipping down an alley he sought a blacksmith shop. Not being recognized, he asked to be allowed to make a shoe, and the permission being granted he was not long in turning out as pretty a trotting shoe as was ever made in the town. Gold cannot buy that shoe from the blacksmith.

Signed Two Players.

Low Nicholls, of the Twin City Baseball club, was in the city yesterday and signed two players for the team. It is understood that the East Liverpool men who played at Dennison last year are booked for this season but all have not yet signed. Timmy Twaddle is one of the two players signed from this city yesterday. Mr. Nicholls left this morning for Wellsburg. He was looking for Jack Darragh while here with a view to signing him, but Darragh was in Steubenville.

Courtney Escaped.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Feb. 23.—The notorious John Henry was placed in jail here yesterday at noon, having been captured in Bridgeport the night before. He was jointly indicted with a man named Courtney, who was in jail at Canton, for various crimes committed near East Rochester. Last night Courtney broke jail, and unless he is recaptured Henry will only be held on another charge which happens to be against him.

Celebrated In Fredericktown.

The holiday was celebrated in Fredericktown with great ceremony, and people came from miles around to take an active part. The entertainment began in the afternoon and continued through the evening. A number from this city were present.

PEOPLE WHO GOT HURT

Those Who Celebrated With Accidents.

CHILD IN A DANGEROUS STATE

It Fell Down Stairs and Concussion of the Brain Was the Result—How One Lady Escaped Injury—Face Cut by a Fall—A Horse Determined to Die.

The five-year-old daughter of Mrs. Harrison, a resident of Seventh street, fell down stairs yesterday, and sustained injuries which may cost her life. The little one was playing on the stairway when the accident occurred, but so great was the fall that the injury could not be mistaken, and Doctor Williams was hastily summoned. The accident produced concussion of the brain, and the child is in a precarious condition.

Mrs. Woods, of the West End, is suffering from injuries received by a fall on the ice. She was walking in the yard at her home when she slipped, and in falling struck her face. The results were a number of painful cuts and gashes.

A lady walking on West Market street had a narrow escape from injury yesterday. A horse driven by James Miller ran away, and the driver, to save himself, turned it into the curbstone in front of the McDavitt residence. It crossed the pavement, and striking the fence knocked a portion of it down. The lady was on the sidewalk, and only saved herself by hastily running into the yard. Miller was hurt about the legs.

A small boy was riding a horse belonging to Milkman O'Hanlon, on the Lisbon road yesterday, when the animal fell near the quarry. The youngster was unhurt, but the horse could not be induced to rise. After repeated efforts it was found that he was injured internally, and a bullet soon ended his life.

When Charley Hall was driving a loaded wagon across Sixth street yesterday it decided to go down, and the load was scattered over a portion of the street car track. No one was injured.

A Change at the College.

Professor Fowler, who has so long and successfully conducted the Ohio Valley Business college has sold it to C. H. Macklin, a prominent educator of Pittsburgh. There will be no change in the faculty, with the exception of Professor Mitchell, who retires. Mr. Macklin comes to the city with the best of recommendations, and will doubtless make the enterprise a flattering success, while Professor Fowler retires to the potting business with the best wishes of many friends.

Two Old Ladies Dead.

Word was received here yesterday by J. M. Kelley announcing the death of Mrs. Nancy Thompson, mother of Mrs. Kelley at Birmingham, Pa. She was aged 83 years.

Mrs. Anna R. Pusey, wife of the late Squire Pusey of Chester, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Humerickhouse, Fourth street. The lady has long been a resident of East Liverpool, and was 72 years old. Until a week ago the lady enjoyed very good health.

Death to the Dog.

A passenger from this city on a train from Irondele the other day saw a canine meet a death which seldom befalls dogs. A youngster at Hammondsville was tugging at a rope attached to the dog, and the animal obstinately pulled back. This angered the lad and he tied the dog to the rear car on the train. A few miles east a brakeman cut the rope but the dog's head had been pulled from its shoulders.

A New Minister.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS REVIEW.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Senator Ransome, of North Carolina, was this afternoon nominated minister to Mexico. This is taken as additional proof that Professor Wilson will go to the supreme bench.

No Doubt After Monday.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Feb. 23.—Attorney Warren filed a motion today asking that Witzman, accused of the murder of Conkel, be released on bail. It will be argued on Monday. The outcome will undoubtedly show whether the authorities have a good case.

On a Committee.

The chief business of the Young Men's Christian Association convention in Columbus yesterday was the completion of the permanent organization. Secretary Morris, of this city, was selected as one of the committee on credentials.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, FEB. 23

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

There is joy in Staffordshire because the manufacturers expect to sell a lot of ware in America this year.
Another evidence of how the low tariff on crockery increases the home trade.

GEORGE WASHINGTON saw the Republic pass over some rocky roads when he was on earth, but he never saw a congress die with as much rejoicing from the people as will be felt in a few weeks.

Turn good English loving editor of the Salem News should not neglect to remind the editor of the Alliance Critic of the lack of punctuation in the head surmounting the account of a military inspection recently held in that city.

THE NEWS REVIEW agrees with all who advocate some arrangement whereby prisoners released from the penitentiary can be given an opportunity to earn an honest living. An employment bureau in Columbus would probably answer every purpose, and produce the desired result.
Man's inhumanity has caused many a poor fellow to return to his evil ways.

COSHOCTON, Gurnsey and Tuscarawas counties, have been sending their culprits to the Canton workhouse but are now agitating the construction of such an institution. If it will pay these counties to care for their own criminals why cannot Columbiana and Jefferson erect a workhouse at some centrally located point, say East Liverpool? It would be money in the pockets of the counties, and would have a wholesome effect upon the criminals of this portion of Ohio.

A SIGHT FOR THE FATHER.

If George Washington is so situated that he can look occasionally upon this old ball, he probably had a laugh to himself as he glanced at the realm of Columbia on yesterday when loyal Americans were recalling his virtues.
George would, of course, look upon the proud capital which bears his name, and would not fail to observe the predicament of the prophet who sits in the presidential mansion. To the sturdy old soldier and statesman, who acted as soon as possible after he had decided on a course, and who never followed a plan until it was complete in every detail, the position of Grover Cleveland will be amusing. The father of his country can well afford to laugh in derision at the man who permitted the country to become burdened with debt when the duties on imports should pay the bills, and after he found himself at the head of a borrowing nation had no plan to remedy the condition. The sight of a general rushing to battle and leaving no road for retreat when defeat seems certain is enough to make less severe critics than George Washington smile in derision.

HOT SPRINGS FIRE.

Later Reports Increase the Death List.

SIX KNOWN TO HAVE PERISHED.

The Number of Fatalities May Be Increased After More Thorough Investigation—One Man Perished For the Sake of His Money.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 23.—As far as known six people were burned to death in the fire here. Four and a half blocks of the residence and business portion of the city, on Quachita avenue, were destroyed. The fire originated in the Ledgewood bakery. The residence of H. M. Hudkins and the bakery were destroyed, and in 20 minutes the fire had spread to half a dozen buildings, and, fanned by a strong wind from the north, swept everything as tinder before it.

The flames crossed the street and the Quachita hotel and Oakland were next burned. Out of nearly 100 houses burned in only half a dozen cases was the furniture saved.

As far as known there have been six persons burned to death, but rumors are rife of others missing, and the number of fatalities may be increased to a score when the deathroll is called. Among the dead are: Mrs. Mary Sammon, 70 years old, who was living in the Ledgewood building.

D. W. Wing of Glen Falls, N. Y., who escaped the flames at first but remembered that he had $1,500 in the house, rushed back to get it. Before he reached the door, his clothing was on fire, and he burned to death in the sight of thousands of people. A man named Hill, one of whose arms was paralyzed, from Chicago, is reported as among the dead. A negro, name unknown, also perished.

WHIPPED TWO WILDCATS.

A Brave Kitten Subdues Them With a Riding Whip.

VANCEBURG, Ky., Feb. 23.—The much advertised fight between Charles Plummer and Dr. Connors' two big wild cats, recently captured, took place in a 12x12 foot cage on the stage of the Russell Opera House here, a good sized crowd witnessing the affair. Plummer appeared with a baseball mask over his face and carried a small riding whip as his only means of defense.

Both cats sprang on Plummer two or three times, but took flight and tried to get out of the cage after seeing their antagonist was not afraid of them, and a few sharp cuts with the whip made them crouch in the corners of the cage and take the punishment of the cutting lashes given them with the whip without attempting to defend themselves.

The Bennington in Bad Condition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Advice from Acapulco by the steamer City of Sydney says that the United States gunboat Bennington is at Acapulco in a crippled condition, in spite of statements to the contrary. On the way from San Francisco to Acapulco the crown sheet of one of the boilers caved in. The Bennington was at Mare Island navyyard nearly four months undergoing repairs before she sailed for the south.

Maher and Hall Fight a Draw.

BOSTON, Feb. 23.—The Suffolk Athletic club presented a 6-round bout between Peter Maher, champion middleweight of Ireland, and Jim Hall of Australia, as the chief feature. The referee, J. A. Kelliher, called a draw at the finish and the 2,000 spectators who were present hissed the decision. The battle was very tame, Maher forcing the fighting in all but the fourth round and doing the most effective work.

May Not Elect a Senator.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 23.—Only one day of the legislative session remains, and a United States senator is elected before midnight tonight. Oregon will have but one representative in the upper branch of congress for the next two years. Dolph's strength is gradually melting away, and it is now practically settled that he cannot be elected.

Sent to an English Prison.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Word has been received here from England that Charles Young, the former notorious saloonkeeper of this city, has been sentenced at Worcester, England, on the charge of murdering assault upon Police Inspector Wallace and has been sentenced to serve 20 years in prison.

A Gambler Killed.

HOUSTON, Feb. 23.—W. J. Perry, a well known gambler and a wealthy citizen of Houston, has been shot and killed by Joseph H. Stahl, a building contractor. Both men were drinking and both using abusive language. Perry was advancing on Stahl with an open knife when shot.

[Shot by a Constable.

WOODSTOCK, Ga., Feb. 23.—James Camp, while drunk, went into a store and proceeded to smash the showcases. Constable Evans, in attempting to arrest Camp, finding himself about to be overpowered, shot him through the neck, killing him.

A Wealthy Man Suicides.

CORRY, Pa., Feb. 23.—M. Michael, a wealthy citizen of this place, has hanged himself. He had just completed building and furnishing a new hotel, the Imperial, which was to have been opened for business the day of his death.

Ex-Governor Oglesby Improved.

ELKHART, Ills., Feb. 23.—Ex-Governor Oglesby's condition is much improved. His physician says the relapse was due to a slight attack of heart failure caused by too much exercise after the governor's serious illness of last week.

THE RUSSIAN STUDENTS' RIOTS.

The Rioters Merely Wanted to Communicate With the Czar.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Additional details received here indicate that the students who caused so much trouble in the streets of St. Petersburg really wanted to present a petition to the czar, but they became intoxicated. They entered several theaters, jeered the performers, and fought with spectators and attendants until forcibly ejected. They then proceeded to the front of the Anitcheff palace, where they paraded, hoping to attract the attention of the czar.

The police finally stopped the marching and counter-marching. A good-sized riot ensued, but the students were finally driven away. They then went to a restaurant, but this time had already taken the precaution to order the proprietor to close the doors. This enraged the students, and they forced the doors and windows, smashed the furniture and destroyed the viands. They were finally ejected by the authorities. Then the students attacked the police with knives, stones and broken articles of furniture. They were severely handled in return, and at least 20 were placed under arrest by the police.

A Concession to the British.

CAIRO, Feb. 23.—A special cabinet council has just been held here to discuss the Egyptian situation, the knedive presiding. In as much as the agitation appears to have been caused by the recent attack by the Egyptians, on the crew of the British cruiser Scout, it was decided to create a special tribunal, which shall have jurisdiction over the offenses of the natives against the British soldiers, sailors and marines stationed in Egypt. The promise of the new court is regarded as an important concession by the English here, and it is likely to intensify the French agitation against British influence in Egypt.

The House Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The house devoted Washington's birthday to the further consideration of the general deficiency appropriation bill. Most of the time was spent in the discussion of questions of minor importance relating to extra compensation for employees of the house of representatives, and no amendments of moment were adopted. Just before adjournment the senate resolution to postpone the time when the new regulations to prevent collisions at sea should go into force, was passed.

An Attorney in a Tight Place.

PEORIA, Ills., Feb. 23.—There was a scene in the circuit court when Judge Worthington called John W. Culbertson, a well known lawyer and one of the Democratic aspirants for city attorney, before the bar and gave him until Monday to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt of court. Culbertson is charged with approaching a juror in a damage suit against the electric car line and urging him to hang the jury. Culbertson says it is a blackmailing attempt to ruin him.

Child Burned to Death.

RINDERLANDER, Mich., Feb. 23.—The residence of Rev. D. L. Hayford has been destroyed by fire, and a child aged 6 years was burned to death. Two older children tried to take the unconscious child to the window, but were unable to do so. They jumped to the ground and roused their mother on the first floor, but the roof fell before they could save the little one.

They Approve the Strike.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The executive committee of the board of walking delegates and the strike committee of Electrical Workers' union, No. 3, has met and approved the action of the wiremen. It was hoped that a settlement will be reached by Monday. If not strikes will be declared on all buildings in the course of erection in the city.

The Pope Entirely Recovered.

ROME, Feb. 23.—The pope has entirely recovered from the chill which recently attacked him, and is holding conferences with Cardinal von Schoenborn, the archbishop of Prague, on the question of the Christian socialists in Austria. It is said to be the intention of the pope to interfere with their programme.

Two Men Frozen to Death.

RICHMOND, Ky., Feb. 23.—News has just reached here to the effect that two men were frozen to death near Pound Gap, in the Cumberland mountains. One was named Sturgison and the other Isaac Kelly. Snow is from 15 to 18 inches on a level in the Cumberland mountains and in some places it is banked up to a depth of 3 to 5 feet.

Accused of Wrecking a Train.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 23.—William Brewer, a notorious character of Dingess, Mingo county, has been arrested here charged with wrecking a passenger train on the Norfolk and Western. Brewer is a desperate character and is well known throughout the state.

Many Thousands of Lives Lost.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—A dispatch to The Standard from Odessa says that the town of Koutchat, near Astrabad, Persia, has been destroyed by an earthquake. Many thousands of lives were lost.

The Weather.

Fair; slightly warmer; west winds.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The French mail steamship reported at Marseilles that 13 men of the French navy were killed by Tonquinese pirates. The steamship Assyrian arrived at Genoa with the crew of the abandoned Russian bark Louise.

William Bonn, bookkeeper for a firm of New York tobacco manufacturers, was charged with embezzling $1,000.

Captain Hammett and seven sailors of the abandoned schooner Elwood Harlow were landed in New York.

Model tenements costing $5,000,000 will be erected in and about New York.

Billy Wright of Pittsburgh will take John L. Sullivan to Cuba to give sparring exhibitions.

Five prisoners, three of them charged with burglary, sawed their way out of the county jail at Huntsville, Mo., and are now at large.

The second annual conference of workers in the negro schools of the south, has closed at Tuskegee, Ala.

The jury in the Howgate embezzlement case at Washington, D. C., has not yet agreed.

GARFIELD BRICK WORKS.

Fine Material Turned Out by George H. Anderson & Co.

Hon. George H. Anderson, of the famous Garfield Fire Brick works, situated at Bolivar, Pa., with main office in Pittsburgh, paid the News Review office a visit this morning. Mr. Anderson is looking after the interests of his company in this city. The company makes a specialty of peculiar shapes used in potteries, and has been making heavy shipments to East Liverpool.

A notably fine piece of workmanship in this line is a new dome built in one of the kilns connected with the pottery of Henry Brunt & Son, from brick furnished by the firm of George H. Anderson & Co. This piece of workmanship is well worth a close examination by the pottery owners of our city who contemplate making improvements in their kilns.

Late shipments of this firm to East Liverpool are Knowles, Taylor & Knowles and numerous other pottery owners of the city, and those who are using the material furnished by the Garfield Brick works are warm in their praise of the excellence of the product. The most satisfactory test, however, is to test the matter for yourselves, oh ye pottery owners, and you have the assurance of men well up in the trade that the brick furnished you by George H. Anderson & Co., will both please and profit you.

Mr. Anderson is well and favorably known throughout Pennsylvania, having served the state in several positions of honor and trust. At present writing he is vice president of the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce, and is one of the leading tariff advocates of the old Keystone State.

Mass Meeting To-Morrow.

The Good Citizenship League have called a mass meeting for to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. The people will be addressed by Rev. W. G. Wishart, of Allegheny, who will tell them all about the league, and explain its mode of operation. The officers of the organization earnestly hope that the people will attend, as they expect the league to become an important factor in East Liverpool, and they want no misunderstanding as to aims and objects.

Morgan Got the Job.

Emmet Morgan, an Alliance Democrat with influence, has been appointed special revenue collector for this district by Collector Olliger. It will be his business to gather in the income tax, and have in keeping the necessary blanks and reports when they come rolling in. It is a nice little plum, and pays the fortunate possessor about $1,800 every year that he is lucky enough to hold the job.

Attacked By Pleurisy.

A Georgetown man who came here this morning to find employment was taken ill at the station and was unable to walk up town. He seemed to be suffering from pleurisy, and Agent Hill could not resist the temptation to do something for him, and securing a mustard plaster soon had him in better condition. He went home on the noon train.

CHURCH CHIMES

Quarterly meeting will be held at the African Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow.

Christian church—Reverend Slayter will preach tonight on the "Messiah's Mission," tomorrow at 11 a. m., "Going on to Perfection," 7:30, "Exaltation of Christ."

Second Presbyterian church—Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m., "Pilate's Decision," by Rev. M. D. McClelland.

First Presbyterian church, Dr. John Lloyd Lee, pastor—At 11 a. m., "Washington's Religion and Our Country's Safety," American Mechanics will attend. At 7:30 p. m., "Scenes From Two Great Mountains," illustrated by large pulpit paintings.

Evangelistic meetings at the First United Presbyterian church will be continued during the week. Rev. W. I. Wishart will continue to help. He will preach Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., and on Wednesday and Friday at 2 p. m. The evening meeting will commence with a praise service at 7:45 o'clock.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Jack Harris is visiting with friends in Pittsburgh.

—F. George, of Cleveland, was in the city yesterday on business.

—Mrs. Doctor Gillford, of Allegheny, is the guest of Mrs. J. D. West.

—W. A. Hill returned last night from Youngstown, where his partner, J. M. Ferguson, will reside.

—W. J. Kirk, secretary and treasurer of the Iron City Savings and Loan Company, was here from Smith's Ferry yesterday, calling on his railroad friends. He was formerly clerk in the local freight office.

Not Dangerously Ill.

The report was on the street today that Dr. Orrin Andrews was seriously and possibly dangerously ill. Investigation through a reliable source demonstrated the fact that our popular young townsman is sick; but it is merely the result of overwork, and a short period of rest will no doubt place him on the active duty list in a few days.

Proud of His Children.

Robert Moore, Broadway, has a son and daughter who are musical wonders. They will appear in Beaver tonight, being members of a company which plays there. The boy is a phenomenal cornetist, and the girl always delights an audience with violin selections.

A Second Street Row.

A man named John Weaver was unmercifully beaten in a row on Second street last night. Some mystery surrounds the case, but the individual bears the marks as glaring proofs that he was abused. A woman is said to be mixed in the scrape.

Saw the Parade.

East Liverpool people were not anxious to leave town yesterday, only 100 tickets being sold to Pittsburgh. The parade of Mechanics was among the best ever seen in the city.

Barnes, grocer, in Diamond.

TO THE PUBLIC AT LARGE.

I have sold out my stock in the East End pottery and will open a first class merchant tailor store in the room at present occupied by W. H. Gass, in the shoe business, 147 Fifth street, Laughlin block, on March 1, 1895, with a complete line of imported and domestic suitings and trousers, and will be prepared to fill your order with promptness, fit and workmanship that has ever characterized my business. Call when in need of goods in this line on A. G. MINEHART, 147 Fifth Street, East Liverpool, Ohio. Laughlin Block.

Mr. Minehart went to New York this afternoon where he will purchase a complete stock of goods.

PETTIGREW WILL FIGHT.

He Discloses the Plan of the Friends of the Pooling Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Mr. Pettigrew (S. D.) gave a decidedly interesting turn to the otherwise tedious debate in the senate on the Indian appropriation bill. It has been discussed for several days, and Mr. Call, in charge of the measure, sought to secure an agreement for a final vote today. There were numerous objections, and among them one from Mr. Pettigrew, which was emphasized by the brief but pointed statement he made. It was in the nature of a disclosure that a private arrangement had been reached among senators, whereby the pooling bill would be taken up at 3 o'clock this afternoon and held before the senate, day and night, and over Sunday, until passed.

The statement came so unexpectedly and was the sequel to such active work by the friends of the pooling bill that it created something of a sensation among the senators and spectators. Mr. Pettigrew added to his announcement that he would take effective steps to defeat the passage of the pooling bill by objecting to the disposal of the Indian appropriation bill or other measures having precedence. The contract school item of the Indian bill was completed in such form as to provide a 20 per cent reduction from the expenditures of last year. Mr. Morgan (Ala.) spoke in favor of a judicial system for the Indian Territory, but his amendment to that effect was finally ruled out of order.

Two Senators in a Squabble.

DENVER, Feb. 23.—Senators Mills and Pease have had a row on the floor of the senate over an appointment to a minor clerkship. Mills called Pease a liar and Pease threw a paperweight, which struck him in the side. Mills sprang at Pease, but was met by the latter's son, a committee clerk, who struck him three times, cutting a gash in his face and blackening his eyes. The combatants were separated, and the senate appointed a committee to investigate and report who was to blame.

To Receive Douglass' Remains.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Mayor Lewis has received a telegram from Congressman Van Voorhis, at Washington, suggesting that the city take steps to receive the remains of Frederick Douglass on Thursday next. The mayor has called a special meeting of the common council for this afternoon to take action.

Bank Robbed In Connecticut.

THOMASTON, CONN., Feb. 23.—Three men, of whom no description can be obtained, used dynamite to blow off the doors of the Thomaston Savings bank vault, securing all the cash in the vault. Citizens who were aroused by the explosion were driven back at the muzzle of revolvers in the hands of the men.

Army and Navy Union.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—The sixth annual convention of the Regular Army and Navy union of the United States is in session in the First M. E. church building. About 100 members of the organization, representing subordinate unions throughout the United States, are in attendance.
